

Celebrate the life of your loved one

---

Celebrating the life of a loved one is an emotional occasion, but that doesn't mean it can't be an uplifting affair. You want to ensure your loved one has a wonderful send-off and that the occasion is held in a warm and friendly venue so that family members and friends can say their goodbyes properly.

Arranging a funeral can be trying and difficult for friends and family but you can make the occasion a celebration of life and a time of fond remembrance. The Grange is a beautiful location with two function rooms, The Regent Room - a light and airy function room overlooking the gardens or the more intimate, wood panelled Wessex Room. Our staff are attentive and non-intrusive and will ensure every detail is taken care of.

Other things to consider

Numbers

When organising a funeral tea or wake it is can be difficult to know exactly how many guests will attend. The afternoon tea, finger buffet and afternoon buffet are ideal options in this situation since each portion comprises several smaller items.

Music

You might want to consider bringing some music either on an iPod or CDs which can be played in the background.

Pictures

We have an easel which can be used to display a photograph or picture. You may also wish to bring some additional photographs so guests may share their memories.
